

*Escape from Boston
Spencer-Peirce-Little Farm
Newbury, MA
May 19 – 21, 2017*

Greetings:

The Acton Minutemen/Simon Hunt's Co. & His Majesty's Tenth Regiment of Foot would like to invite you to join us at the Spencer-Peirce-Little Farm in Newbury, Massachusetts for "Escape from Boston," a weekend encampment featuring daily battles and skirmishes, musket firing competitions, sutler row, colonial demonstrators, a Meadery and a Saturday evening tavern. Everything for a great weekend.

Introduction

The year is 1775 and the British Regulars are besieged in Boston, surrounded by thousands of local militia and minutemen in a line that stretches for many miles. This is General Gage's one shot at breaking through the siege line with his mighty Regulars. He picks what he perceives to be the weakest part of the line and hits it hard. The battle that ensues will determine if he is a hero for the crown, or a goat! What plays out in this "what-if" scenario might have changed the course of the American Revolution.

Location

The 230 acre Spencer-Peirce-Little farm, with ties to the American Revolution, is located in the beautiful seaside town of Newbury, MA. SPL Farm is one of the crown jewels in Historic New England's stable of historic properties. We'll have camps for both sides, a colonial marketplace, a colonial living history area and more.

Registration

Please complete the event registration form and return to the address below. This, along with a completed Living History Agreement Form and Participant Release of Liability Form will secure your space at the event in our living history demonstrator area. Note that demonstrators and vendors are not subsidized for travel, accommodation, or set-up expenses. The site will open for set-up on Friday, May 19 at 12:00pm. Site breakdown will be Sunday, May 21 no earlier than 1:30pm.
