SOMERVILLE POWDER ALARM

1 September 2024

Volunteers of The Regiment will appear under the command of Col. Paul O'Shaughnessy, attending as General Gage, for the Somerville Powder Alarm at Trum Field in Somerville, MA on Sunday, 1 September 2024. This is the 250th anniversary of General Gage's attempt to seize powder and prevent the war to come.

Travel is by private vehicle, but car-pooling is highly recommended. Parking will be available at 520-554 Broadway, on the even side only, along Trum Field.

Dress shall be No. 2 for all ranks (Officers may wear shoes and gaiters in lieu of boots). All firelocks are to be equipped with woods, flash guards and hammerstalls as there will be NO firing.

Event schedule

- 08:30 hrs: Arrive at Trum Field (541 Broadway, Somerville, 02145).
- 09:00 hrs: Army formation. Depart down Broadway, northwest towards Powder House, guided on the road by police escort.
- 09:30 hrs: Redcoats arrive at Trum Field. Enter at the corner of Broadway and Liberty Ave. Scripted re-enactment ensues.
- 10:00 hrs: First docent tour begins. Living history demonstrations begin.
- 10:30 hrs: Redcoat reenactors may depart but may also stay as the living history portions of the event continue. The last docent tour will be at 12:00 hrs and the event will end by 12:30 hrs.

If you have questions about this order, contact your Company Serjeant as soon as possible.
